

Academy of Behavioral Medicine Research June 26-30 2022
The Woodstock Inn, Woodstock, Vermont

ABMR EARLY STAGE INVESTIGATOR AWARD

Deadline to apply: Feb. 28, 2022

Early career investigators (typically Assistant Professors with first grant) are invited to apply for an award to attend the annual meeting of ABMR this summer in Woodstock, VT (June 26-30) and participate in a leadership and career development workshop. The conference will focus on “Healthy Aging Across the Lifespan: The Role of Socioeconomic Status.” The award includes accommodation*, conference registration*, $500 towards travel*, a leadership and networking workshop, and opportunities to meet with senior scholars in behavioral medicine. Individuals from groups that are underrepresented in behavioral medicine research are especially encouraged to apply.

*Pending funding

To apply send the following in one PDF to Anna Marsland (marsland@pitt.edu)

Cover letter stating interest (1 page), CV, letter of support from senior faculty colleague

Last year’s participants called the experience “transformative to their careers” and an “exceptional opportunity to build a peer and mentor support group.”

DETAILS OF THE CONFERENCE ARE POSTED AT :

<https://academyofbmr.org>